Saleh Alfajri - Mengenal Kitab Umdatul Ahkam Karya Al-Maqdisi Mengenal Kitab Umdatul Ahkam Karya Al-Maqdisi Kitab Umdatul Ahkam adalah kitab... This is about the book entitled Kitab Al-Umdatul Ahkaam or Kitab El Umdat Al Ahkaam, in terms of the preface and the introduction that explains the topics covered in the book and in a short dissertation, the book may introduce readers to the topic Security apparatus and methods for use with small electronic devices, such as personal digital assistants ("PDAs") and cellular telephone handsets, are known. Examples of such known security apparatus and methods include those disclosed in U.S. Pat. No. 5,459,574, by Guarnieri et al.; U.S. Pat. No. 5,581,216, by Bielenberg et al.; and U.S. Pat. No. 5,652,889, by Habib. A shortcoming of known security apparatus and methods is that they generally require the use of a keypad, or the like, to be manually entered, such as by a user entering a ten digit code, for example. Accordingly, because the user must be present at the time a password, for example, is entered, the user's personal safety can be compromised. It has been suggested that biometric data can be used to authenticate a user. Biometric data describes characteristics of a user's body, such as a fingerprint, for example, that are unique to the individual user and can be used to authenticate the user
